 Course in Wine*

The Sipping Point: A Crash Course in Wine makes wine education as easy as sipping Chardonnay. Author Laurie Forster blends her training as a sommelier with her experience as a life coach to create a career combining both, as The Wine Coach®, and her 128-page book is an excellent learning tool.

The Sipping Point makes wine education as easy as sipping Chardonnay!

Chapters run just two pages each but are chock-full of really useful information, like why you hold your wine glass by the stem, not the bowl, how to remove sediment from a bottle, cleaning up spilled wine, do's and don'ts of cooking with wine and much more. Sip-size paragraphs and plenty of graphics make this a perfect wine primer to keep handy on your shelf or even as a take-along to wine country. Salud, to The Sipping Point!
